Get your yards ready – Company's comin'.

West Kessler has two homes in the Old Oak Cliff Conservation League (OOCCL) Fall Tour of Homes. Dallas' oldest and largest home tour will take place on October 14th and 15th from noon to 6:00pm.

Ten homes have been selected for this year's tour, ranging from a Craftsman bungalow to mid-century modern to a unique contemporary. Some of the homes represent faithful period reconstruction, while others are examples of the creative reuse of older structures. An outstanding example of truly modern design and new construction will also be showcased.

Every year more than a thousand of our friends from all over North Texas come to see some of the finest Oak Cliff has to offer. Starting from the Bishop Arts District, tour-takers will fan out across Oak Cliff on a self-guided tour of neighborhoods, including Winnetka Heights, Kings Highway, West Kessler and more. Some will be revisiting their home territory, and some will be new friends who have never been to our part of town, discovering for the first time one of Dallas' best kept secrets.

In addition to promoting Oak Cliff to the rest of the world, the proceeds from the Home Tour make possible the OOCCL Neighborhood Grant program each year. Over the years, more than $88,000 has been turned back into our neighborhoods for the benefit of all Oak Cliff residents. Tickets will be $15.00, $12.00 for seniors; and are available now or on the days of the Tour at the Nodding Dog Coffee House (Bishop and 7th Sts) or at the Oak Cliff Mercantile (330 W. Davis St). For more info, contact Vicki Fitzgerald at 214-948-9809 or email exec@ooccl.com.

Bonnie needs 1 more volunteer from 2:45pm – 6 pm, Saturday, October 14 to porch sit at 919 Bison Trail during the OOCCL Fall Tour of Homes. If interested, contact her at 214-941-0210 or bonnieroberds@sbcglobal.net

NEW MEDIA IN OAK CLIFF

We have two new publications focusing on Oak Cliff. You've probably seen them on your doorstep or in your front yard.

The New CliffDweller magazine is giving voice to the our area of North Oak Cliff. Through regular individual and retail features, editorial columns, and special advertising sections, CliffDweller represents the new face of Oak Cliff: the mothers pushing strollers through Kessler Park and Winnetka Heights, the off-duty workers grabbing lunch at Norma's and enjoying Happy Hour at Gloria's, the weekenders, from Oak Cliff and beyond, perusing shops in the Bishop Arts District.

In addition, we also saw the premiere of Oak Cliff People. It is the latest in the series of People papers that serve Turtle Creek, Richardson, Lake Highlands, Preston Hollow, Bluffview, Bent Tree the Park Cities and Lakewood on a weekly basis.

Both pubs are on the look out for good Oak Cliff stories, so keep you ears open.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Holiday Open House
Sunday, Dec 10
We need 3 homes to open their doors to the neighbors for 1 hour each.

Holiday Walk-About
Friday, Dec 15
We need homes to provide refreshment pit-stops in their front yards.

To volunteer your home, please contact David at 214.334.6397 or dgcooper@sbcglobal.net

Erica and Greg are hosting a keg party and the entire 'hood is welcome to come! It's a fundraiser for the Breast Cancer 3 Day Walk in which Erica will walk 60 miles to support breast cancer research and awareness. Everyone is welcome to bring their boobs, have a beer, and make a donation to a great cause.

Boobs & Booze!
Saturday, Oct 21st
2 p.m. - 8 p.m.
